Equity and Nondiscrimination

To the best of my knowledge after due diligence review, this nominee:

Has not been found responsible for violation of the University’s equity and nondiscrimination rules (CRR Chapter 600) and is not currently involved as a respondent in proceedings under those rules. I am not otherwise aware of information to indicate that providing a President’s Award to this individual would reasonably be viewed as undermining the University’s commitment to excellence, diversity and inclusion.

Is currently a Respondent in a pending investigation for allegedly violating or has previously been found responsible for violating the University’s equity and nondiscrimination rules (CRR Chapter 600). Given the current state, further review of the application is recommended to ascertain if providing the President’s Award to this individual would reasonably be viewed as undermining the University’s commitment to excellence, diversity and inclusion. Please explain the findings:
