Note 1: Undergraduate per credit hour rates will be assessed to students enrolled in less than 12 credit hours or students enrolled in more than 18 hours will be assessed the plateau rate on the first 18 hours and per credit hour rate on additional hours taken. The non-resident undergraduate tuition rates presented in the appendix of the published Board documents represent the non-resident premium. The amount presented above reflects the total accessed tuition for non-residents which includes the Missouri tuition rate plus the non-resident premium.

Note 2: Graduate Tier 5 represents a National Market Range tuition pricing that can be accessed within range based on market sensitivity demand factors. A non-resident premium could be assessed up to current nonresident differential of $826.90 per credit hour, but will not exceed maximum per credit hour amount.

Note 3: Graduate Tier 6 represents a tuition pricing range for certificates that can be accessed within range based on market sensitivity demand factors. A non-resident premium could be assessed up to current nonresident differential of $826.90 per credit hour, but will not exceed maximum per credit hour amount.
