Appeals under 600.030, 600.040, and 600.050

Appeals are limited to the following grounds:

- a. A procedural irregularity that affected the outcome of the matter (e.g., material deviation from established procedure, etc.);
- b. To consider new evidence that was not reasonably available at the time the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal was made that could affect the outcome of the matter;
- c. The Title IX Coordinator / Equity (HR) Officer, Investigator(s), or decision-maker(s) had a conflict of interest or bias for or against Complainants or Respondents generally or the individual Complainant or Respondent that affected the outcome of the matter; or
- d. The sanctions fall outside the range typically imposed for the offense, or for the cumulative conduct record of the Respondent.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Appellate Process

- Appeals are not full re-hearings and are intended to be deferential to original findings.
  - Record of the Case (i.e., investigative report, exhibits, recordings)
  - Written documentation (i.e., decision-maker(s) determination)
  - Relevant documentation regarding grounds for appeal
- Appellate Officer may grant reasonable extensions to deadlines in the appeal process to a Party, with notice provided to the other Party

8

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Appellate Process

- Requests for appeal must be submitted in writing to Appellate Officer within 5 business days of delivery of notice of dismissal or written determination
- When any Party requests an appeal, opposing party will be notified and receive a copy of the request for appeal
- Non-appealing Party may file a response to the request for appeal within 5 business days of delivery of notice and copy of request for appeal
  - Sufficient grounds for appeal have not been met, and/or
  - Merits of the appeal

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Appellate Process

- Appellate Officer will review Request for Appeal:
  - Is request timely?
  - Is appeal based on articulated bases for appeal?
  - If viewed in light most favorable to appealing Party, does the appeal state grounds that could result in an adjusted finding or sanction?
- If answer to these questions is no, appeal will be rejected.
- Decision to accept or reject an appeal will be made in writing within 15 days; otherwise, deemed accepted.
- If accepted, decision on appeal must be rendered within 10 business days from accepting request for appeal.
- If accepted, Appellate Officer must render written decision.

Appellate Process – Written Decision

PRACTICE POINTER

If you decide to accept appeal, you may combine decision to accept appeal & written decision on appeal into one decision.

(will have to be completed within 15 days)

11

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Appellate Process – Written Decision

- ✓ Describe procedural history of appellate case
- ✓ List bases for appeal
- ✓ If combining acceptance of request for appeal, include rationale for this:
  - Timely
  - Based on appropriate grounds
  - Viewed in light most favorable, could result in adjusted finding or sanction
- ✓ State standard of review (deference to original findings and to what you are confining your review)
- ✓ State conclusion(s) & rationale for decision(s)
- ✓ Close by indicating that the outcome is final; further appeals are not permitted.
