Need a speaker for your event?

Connect with the Presidential Engagement Fellows — a group of University of Missouri System faculty who are excited to share how their work benefits Missourians.

At no cost to you, fellows can speak to a wide variety of topics, such as:

- Personal finance basics
- The intersection of poetry and medicine
- How Missouri has been central to the history of religion in America
- Zoom's impact on human interaction
- Understanding how Missouri's constitution differs from the federal constitution
- Promoting local food and nutrition security in Missouri
